7. Discussion Item(s)

- A. Update/Discussion of Art & Civil Rights Cohort project: Commissioner Stone reported that the Arts & Civil Rights project which the Commission voted on at the July 13, 2020 meeting would no longer consist of 3 Community meetings and a trip to Alabama, but consist of 3 Community meetings and 3 virtual tours. For a Cohort participant to apply for grant funding for an arts & civil rights project or program, the nonprofit must attend all 6 sessions. The nonprofits who are accepted into the cohort will be given a weighted score in their grant evaluation for their participation in the program.
- B. Update on 2021 grants program: Commissioner Heise advised that she had researched changing the grants program to collaborative grants to organizations working on equity and social justice via a RFP process. Said research and discussions with arts/culture nonprofits revealed to Commissioner Heise and Director that the COVID-19 pandemic makes collaborations very difficult – both financially and programmatically – as the organizations are stilling struggling to survive. Commissioner Heise advises that the 2021 grant program will return to our regular two portfolios – Organizational Support and Project/Program grants – with scores being weighted towards applicants serving the underserved populations, and/or working on equity and social justice.
- C. Update on prioritization of 1st year work plan initiatives and continuation of the Commission’s work on Equity/Social Justice: the Director briefly recapped the year-one workplan, included in the agenda packet, as prioritized by the Director, Chair and Vice Chair.
- D. Discussion of length of time for regular Commission meetings: The Commission Director queried the Commissioners as to their preference of meeting monthly with a goal of finishing meetings in 90 minutes, or meeting bi-monthly for 2 to 2.5 hours. The consensus of the Commissioners was to continue meeting bi-monthly, with the Director reminding the Commissioners that some meetings may be slightly longer than 2 hours.

8. Adjournment: the Chair adjourned the meeting at 5:05 P.M.
